

IDAHO 2009

international day against homophobia

You are invited to:

stars against

HOmophobia

an event to celebrate all diverse sexualities

- ★ Write on a STAR against HOmophobia
- ★ Speeches and stories from Hon Ian Hunter MLC and local community members
- ★ Performances from local stand-up comic Lori Farmer, Singer/Songwriters Luke Ashby and Linda Patterson
- ★ Event Catered | Bar Open

Sunday 17 May, 2009 @ 2pm

Higher Ground Art Cafe, Light Square, Adelaide

Come along and join the voices saying NO to HOmophobia

What is IDAHO?... On 17 May 1990, the General Assembly of the World Health Organization (WHO) removed homosexuality from their list of mental disorders. The fight for the recognition of equal rights for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people continues today, across the globe and here in Adelaide.